Movement I · The Table

Together Where There Is No Union

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

LUKE 23:12 And on that same day, both Pilate and Herod became friends with each other, for they before were at enmity between themselves.

READ ALONG: Genesis 11:1–9; Luke 23:6–12

Follow along

1. At Babel, what did the people say they wanted to make for themselves?

2. What had Herod and Pilate been to each other before that day?

3. Why might two rival rulers find it easy to agree about Jesus?

4. Jehovah scattered a unified people. Why is that not a contradiction of everything Scripture says about unity?

5. Where have you seen people come together mainly because they share an opponent?

6. What holds your closest group together: what you love, or what you're against?

7. Could some of our unity be Herod-and-Pilate unity?

THE ONE QUESTION

What holds your group together: a love, or an enemy?

1. If that opponent disappeared tomorrow, what would still hold your group together?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
