Movement II · What Every Human Needs

A Place at the Table

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

PSALMS 68:5 In His holy dwelling God is a father of the fatherless, and a judge of the widows.

6 God causes the lonely ones to live at home; He brings out those who are bound with chains, while the ones rebelling dwell in a dry land.

READ ALONG: Psalms 68:5–6; Ruth 1:16; Ruth 2:10–14; Luke 15:20–24

Follow along

1. What did Ruth ask Boaz when he noticed her?

2. What did a Moabite widow stand to expect in Israel's fields?

3. What did Boaz do at mealtime, and why might that matter more than the grain?

4. In Luke 15, what did the father do before the son finished speaking?

5. Who has given you a place at their table when you didn't expect one?

6. Who in our community eats alone?

7. Are there conditions for sitting at our table that God never set?

Leave them with

THE ONE QUESTION

Who would be surprised to be called to your table?

- 1. What “family” has offered you belonging on conditions?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
