Movement II · What Every Human Needs

A Name

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

ISAIAH 43:1 But now so says Jehovah who created you, O Jacob; and He who formed you, O Israel: Fear not, for I have redeemed you; I called you by your name; you are to Me.

READ ALONG: Isaiah 43:1; John 10:3; Luke 19:1–7

Follow along

1. What does Jesus call the man in the tree, and what does the crowd call him?

2. What would a Jericho crowd have thought of a chief tax collector?

3. Why might it matter that the name came before the label?

4. In Isaiah 43:1, what does Jehovah say right after "I called you by your name"?

5. What names or labels have been put on you that you didn't choose?

6. What labels do you use for people you've never had a conversation with?

7. Is there someone you know only by a label? What is their name?

THE ONE QUESTION

Who do you know only by their label?

- 1. What would you want Jesus to call you, if he stopped under your tree?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
