Movement II · What Every Human Needs

Seen and Believed

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

GENESIS 16:13 And she called the name of Jehovah, the One speaking to her, You, a God of vision! For she said, Even here have I looked after the One seeing me?

READ ALONG: Genesis 16:7–13; Luke 24:9–11

Follow along

1. How does the Angel address Hagar, and what questions does he ask?

2. What was Hagar's position in Abram's household?

3. What name does Hagar give to God, and why that name?

4. Who were the first to report the empty tomb, and how were they received?

5. Why might the apostles have dismissed what the women said?

6. When have you told the truth and not been believed?

7. Whose word do you discount before they've finished speaking?

Leave them with

THE ONE QUESTION

Whose testimony do you dismiss before you hear it?

1. Who in your life has no one who sees them? What would seeing them look like?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
