Movement II · What Every Human Needs

Dignity, Not Shame

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

GENESIS 3:7 And the eyes of both of them were opened, and they knew that they were naked. And they sewed leaves of the fig tree, and made girdles for themselves.

8 And they heard the sound of Jehovah God walking up and down in the garden at the breeze of the day. And the man and his wife hid themselves from the face of Jehovah God in the middle of the trees of the garden.

9 And Jehovah God called to the man and said to him, Where are you?

10 And he said, I have heard Your sound in the garden, and I was afraid, for I am naked, and I hid myself.

READ ALONG: Genesis 3:7–10, 21; John 8:3–11

Follow along

1. What did Adam and his wife do when they heard Jehovah God in the garden?

2. What did they make for themselves, and what did God make for them?

3. In John 8, why did the scribes bring the woman to Jesus?

4. Who left first, and why might the oldest leave first?

5. Jesus neither condemned her nor excused her. How do those two fit together?

6. When it isn't safe to be seen, what do people make to cover themselves? Which of those coverings do we condemn fastest in others, and do we wear any of them ourselves?

7. When have you stood among the accusers?

THE ONE QUESTION

Who have you left standing in the middle?

- 1. What are you hiding behind the trees?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
