Movement II · What Every Human Needs

Choice

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

DEUTERONOMY 30:15 Behold, I have set before you today life and good and death and evil,

READ ALONG: Deuteronomy 30:15, 19; Joshua 24:15

Follow along

1. What does Deut 30 say God set before the people?

2. What does Joshua tell Israel to do, and what does he say about his own house?

3. Why might a leader at the end of his life put a choice before the people instead of a command?

4. What happens to a person when every choice is made for them?

5. Where in your life have you felt that nothing you did made a difference?

6. Have you ever given away your choices to a group because it was easier?

7. Do we leave room for others to choose, or do we only respect choices that match ours?

Leave them with

THE ONE QUESTION

Who have you been choosing for, when the choice was theirs?

1. What choice have you handed to someone else that is yours to make?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
