Movement II · What Every Human Needs

Order and Truth

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

GENESIS 8:22 While the earth remains, seedtime and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease.

READ ALONG: Genesis 8:22; John 8:31–32

Follow along

1. What does God promise will not cease while the earth remains?

2. Why would that promise matter to people who had just come through the flood?

3. According to John 8:31, who will know the truth?

4. Why do people prefer a frightening explanation to no explanation?

5. When the world felt out of control for you, what did you reach for?

6. Where do you get your facts, and who do you never let tell you anything?

7. Could we be as attached to an explanation as to the truth?

THE ONE QUESTION

What explanation do you hold because it makes you feel safe, not because it's true?

1. Who could you ask, this week, what they know that you don't?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
