Movement II · What Every Human Needs

Protection and Justice

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

NUMBERS 35:15 These six cities shall be for a refuge to the sons of Israel, and to an alien, and to a sojourner in their midst, that may flee there any person who kills anyone unawares.

READ ALONG: Numbers 35:9–15, 25; Luke 18:1–8

Follow along

1. Who were the cities of refuge for, according to Num 35:15?

2. Why might God build protection for the accidental killer into the land itself?

3. What did the widow ask the judge, and why did he finally act?

4. What is Jesus teaching by comparing God with an unjust judge?

5. When have you, or someone you love, waited for justice that didn't come?

6. Where do people today run when they have no refuge?

7. When justice is slow, do we pick a side before we know the facts?

THE ONE QUESTION

When justice failed, whose side did you take, and why?

1. Who could you be a city of refuge for?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
