Movement II · What Every Human Needs

The Hungry Soul

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

PROVERBS 27:7 A sated soul tramples a honeycomb, but to a hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet.

READ ALONG: Proverbs 27:7; Proverbs 25:16; Luke 15:14–17; Numbers 11:4–6; Ecclesiastes 2:10–11; Ecclesiastes 6:7; Psalms 107:4–9

Follow along

1. What does Proverbs 27:7 say the sated soul does with a honeycomb, and what tastes sweet to the hungry soul?

2. What did the young man in the far country long to eat, and why would that look good to him?

3. Israel had manna every day. Why do you think they said "our soul withers"?

4. The Preacher withheld nothing his eyes asked for. What did he find when he looked back?

5. What has tasted sweet to you mainly because you were hungry for something else?

6. When people go hungry for something they need, what do they reach for that tastes sweet only because of the hunger? Which of those do we judge fastest in others, and do we reach for any of them ourselves?

7. Have you ever been the sated soul, walking on something another person was starving for?

Leave them with

THE ONE QUESTION

What do you reach for when what you need is missing?

- 1. What are you actually hungry for?
- 2. Whose hunger have you judged from a full table?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
