Movement II · What Every Human Needs

Beauty and Wonder

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

MATTHEW 6:28 And why are you anxious about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow. They do not labor nor do they spin, 29 but I say to you that not even Solomon in all his glory was clothed as one of these.

READ ALONG: Matthew 6:28–29; Psalms 8:3–4; Job 38:1–7; Job 39; Job 42:5

Follow along

1. What does Jesus tell his hearers to consider, and what does he compare them with?

2. Job asked for an explanation. What did God give him instead?

3. Why might wonder help a suffering man more than an argument would?

4. What does Job say changed by the end?

5. When did creation last stop you in your tracks?

6. How does wonder change the way you see other people?

7. Do we answer people's suffering with explanations when wonder would serve them better?

THE ONE QUESTION

What made you feel small in a good way this week?

- 1. Who could you take outside to look up?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
