

SUNDAY BIBLE STUDY · STUDY SHEET

Movement II · What Every Human Needs

A Story to Belong To

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

DEUTERONOMY 6:20 When your son asks you hereafter, saying, What are the testimonies and the statutes and the judgments which Jehovah your God has commanded you?

21 Then you shall say to your son, We were Pharaoh's slaves in Egypt, and Jehovah brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand.

22 And Jehovah gave signs and great and grievous wonders on Egypt, on Pharaoh, and on all his household, before our eyes.

23 And He has brought us out from there in order to bring us in, to give us the land which He had sworn to our fathers.

24 And Jehovah commanded us to do all these statutes, to fear Jehovah our God for our good forever, to keep us alive, as today.

25 And it shall be righteousness for us when we take heed to do all this commandment before Jehovah our God, as He has commanded us.

READ ALONG: Deuteronomy 6:20–25

Follow along

1. What question does Moses expect the son to ask?

2. What is the first thing the father is to say?

3. Why would a story about slavery be the foundation of the law for Israel?

4. What does it mean that God brought them out "in order to bring us in"?

5. What stories were you raised on? What did they teach you about who you are?

6. Have you ever been offered a story where someone else was always the villain?

7. Do your children or grandchildren know your story of being brought out?

Leave them with

THE ONE QUESTION

What story are you handing down: rescue or grievance?

1. Who has asked you why you believe, and did you answer with a rule or a story?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.

Notes