Grief

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

JOHN 11:33 Therefore when He saw her weeping, and the Jews who came down with her weeping, Jesus groaned in the spirit and troubled Himself.

34 And He said, Where have you put him? They said to Him, Lord, come and see.

35 Jesus wept.

36 Therefore the Jews said, See how He loved him!

READ ALONG: John 11:33–36, 43–44; Romans 12:15

Follow along

1. What did Jesus see just before he wept?

2. What did the onlookers conclude from his tears?

3. Why would Jesus weep if he knew he was about to raise Lazarus?

4. What does Romans 12:15 ask of us?

5. When you grieved, who wept with you? Who hurried you?

6. What happens to grief that nobody shares?

7. Do we rush people's grief because their tears make us uncomfortable?

THE ONE QUESTION

Whose grief have you hurried?

Whose grief have you hurried?

- The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
