Movement II · What Every Human Needs

Meaning, and Facing Death

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

ECCLESIASTES 1:2 Vanity of vanities, says the Preacher, vanity of vanities! All is vanity!

READ ALONG: Ecclesiastes 1:2; Ecclesiastes 12:13; Hebrews 2:14–15

Follow along

1. How does Ecclesiastes begin, and how does it end?

2. What does Hebrews say keeps people in slavery all their lives?

3. Why would a book like Ecclesiastes be in Scripture?

4. Frankl saw that a reason to live helped people endure. What reasons have kept you going?

5. How does fear of death show up in ordinary life?

6. Have you seen someone find meaning in a cause mainly by having an enemy?

7. Could some of our fiercest arguments be fear of death in disguise?

THE ONE QUESTION

What are you living for that will still matter after you die?

1. What fear has been quietly running your life?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
