Movement II · What Every Human Needs

Someone to Talk To

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

PSALMS 32:1 A Psalm of David. A Contemplation. Blessed is he whose transgression is lifted, whose sin is covered.

2 Blessed is the man to whom Jehovah does not impute iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no guile.

3 When I kept silence, then my bones became old, through my howling all day.

4 For by day and by night Your hand was heavy on me; my sap was turned into the droughts of summer. Selah.

5 I confessed my sin to You, and I have not hidden my iniquity; I said, I will confess over my transgression to Jehovah; and You forgave the iniquity of my sin. Selah.

READ ALONG: Psalms 32:1–5; Job 2:11–13; Job 13:4–5; 1 Samuel 1:12–16

Follow along

1. What does David say happened to him while he kept silent?

2. What did Job's friends do for the first seven days?

3. Why might Job's friends have helped him more by silence than by speech?

4. What did Eli assume about Hannah, and what was really happening?

5. Who do you actually talk to when something is wrong?

6. When someone pours out their soul to you, what do you usually do first?

7. Have you ever been Eli, sure you knew what was going on with someone, and wrong?

THE ONE QUESTION

Who has no one to talk to, and would talk to you if you just sat down?

1. What are you keeping silent about that is making your bones old?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
