

SUNDAY BIBLE STUDY · STUDY SHEET

Movement II · What Every Human Needs

To Be Heard

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

MARK 10:51 And answering, Jesus said to him, What do you desire I should do to you? And the blind one said to Him, My Lord, that I may see again.

READ ALONG: Mark 10:46–52; Numbers 27:1–11; Psalms 39:2–3; Matthew 6:7–8; Proverbs 18:13

Follow along

1. What did the crowd tell Bartimaeus, and what did he do?

2. What question did Jesus ask, and why might he ask it when the answer seemed obvious?

3. What did the daughters of Zelophehad ask for, and what reason did they give?

4. Jehovah said they spoke rightly, and the law was written to include them. What does that say about who deserves a hearing?

5. In Psalm 39, what happened while David kept silent?

6. When people go a long time without anyone really listening, what do they do instead? Which of those do we find hardest to put up with in others, and do we do any of them ourselves?

7. Who around you is getting louder? Has anyone asked them what they want?

8. Is it possible that some people we call extreme are people nobody listened to?

Leave them with

THE ONE QUESTION

Who have you told to be quiet instead of asking what they want?

1. What would you say if someone asked you, and waited for the answer?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.

Notes
