Movement III · Conflicting Desires

The Skirt of the Robe

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

1 SAMUEL 24:12 Jehovah shall judge between you and me, and Jehovah shall avenge me of you. But my hand shall not be on you.

READ ALONG: 1 Samuel 24:1–22

Follow along

1. What do David's men say, and how do they use God's words?

2. What does David do, and how does he feel afterward?

3. Why does David keep calling Saul his lord?

4. When have friends encouraged you to get even?

5. Why do people dress revenge in spiritual language?

6. Is giving judgment to God the same as giving up on justice?

7. Who would you cut if no one would know?

Leave them with

THE ONE QUESTION

Whose robe is in your hand?

- 1. Who are you letting God judge, and who are you still judging yourself?
- 2. What would it take to call after them?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
