Movement III · Conflicting Desires

Two Women, One Plea

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

PHILIPPIANS 4:1 So then, my brothers, beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand firm in the Lord, beloved ones.

2 I entreat Euodias, and I entreat Syntyche, to mind the same thing in the Lord.

3 And I also ask you, true yoke-fellow, together help with them, women who struggled along with me and with Clement in the gospel, and the rest, fellow-workers with me, whose names are in the Book of Life.

READ ALONG: Philippians 4:1-3

Follow along

1. What does Paul ask of the two women, and of the yoke-fellow?

2. What does he say about their past work?

3. Why might Paul name them in a letter read to everyone?

4. When has someone helped you make peace with a co-worker?

5. Why does Paul not say who is right?

6. Is it ever kinder to step into someone else's conflict than to stay out of it?

7. What would minding the same thing look like with someone you disagree with?

Leave them with

THE ONE QUESTION

Who are you being asked to help, and who needs your help to make peace?

- 1. What do you and your opponent both still want?
- 2. Whose good work have you forgotten because of one disagreement?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
