Movement III · Conflicting Desires

The War Inside

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

JAMES 4:1 From where do wars and fightings among you come? Is it not from this, from your lusts, the ones warring in your members?

READ ALONG: Romans 7:15–24; James 4:1–3

Follow along

1. How does Paul describe himself in Romans 7:15–19?

2. Where does James say fights come from?

3. Why would an apostle admit this in a letter?

4. Where do you feel pulled two ways inside?

5. How does an inner war spill out onto the people near you?

6. Is it easier to fight others than to face what is warring in you?

7. Which conflict from this movement do you see in yourself?

Leave them with

THE ONE QUESTION

Which outside war of yours started inside?

- 1. What do you want that you have not asked God for?
- 2. Who gets hit when you are at war with yourself?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
