Movement III · Conflicting Desires

The Best Seat

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

MARK 10:43 But it shall not be so among you, but whoever desires to become great among you shall be your servant.

READ ALONG: Mark 10:35–45

Follow along

1. How do James and John phrase their request at first?

2. How do the ten react, and why?

3. What did a seat at a king's right hand mean then?

4. Where do you see people jockeying for position among friends or family?

5. Why did the ten get angry if they had not asked for anything?

6. Is the ten's indignation any better than the two's ambition?

7. What would change in your work if greatness meant serving?

THE ONE QUESTION

What seat are you quietly asking for?

- 1. Whose promotion made you indignant?
- 2. Who could you serve this week without anyone knowing?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
