Movement IV · Unmet Needs Become Chaos

Famine in Samaria

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

2 KINGS 6:28 And the king said to her, What ails you? And she said, This woman said to me, Give your son and we will eat him today; and tomorrow we will eat my son.

READ ALONG: 2 Kings 6:24–33

Follow along

1. What does verse 25 tell us about conditions in the city?

2. What does the king say when the woman first cries out?

3. What was hidden under the king's robe, and why might that matter?

4. Why does Scripture record something this terrible?

5. What does extreme scarcity do to the way people treat one another?

6. Is it fair to judge people for what they do at the bottom?

7. When things are desperate, who do you blame, and is it the right one?

Leave them with

THE ONE QUESTION

What would you do at the bottom that you are sure you would never do?

- 1. Who near you is closer to the bottom than you know?
- 2. What sackcloth are you wearing under your robe?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
