Movement IV · Unmet Needs Become Chaos

I, I Alone, Am Left

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

1 KINGS 19:18 And I have left in Israel seven thousand, all the knees that have not bowed to Baal, and every mouth that has not kissed him.

READ ALONG: 1 Kings 19:9–21

Follow along

1. What does Elijah say to God, and how many times?

2. What does God tell him about the seven thousand?

3. What had just happened to Elijah before this (1 Kings 18–19:4)?

4. When have you felt like the only one who cared about what is right?

5. Why does isolation make people more certain, not less?

6. Is it possible to be faithful and wrong about the facts at the same time?

7. Who has God put near you that you have not noticed?

Leave them with

THE ONE QUESTION

Who are the seven thousand you cannot see?

- 1. What speech have you been rehearsing alone?
- 2. Who could you throw a mantle over this week?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
