The Overlooked Widows

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

ACTS 6:1 But in those days, the disciples having multiplied, a murmuring of the Hellenists toward the Hebrews occurred, because their widows were being overlooked in the daily serving.

READ ALONG: Acts 6:1–7

Follow along

1. Who was being overlooked, and who complained?

2. What did the Twelve do with the complaint?

3. Why would widows have depended on this daily distribution?

4. Where have you seen a small neglect grow into a group complaint?

5. Why do people group up when they feel overlooked?

6. Is it easier to defend yourself against a complaint than to fix it?

7. Who is being overlooked in your community, and by whom?

THE ONE QUESTION

Who is being overlooked at your table?

- 1. What complaint have you dismissed that was actually a need?
- 2. What would it take to put someone over that need this week?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
