Drive Away This Slave-Girl

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

GENESIS 21:10 And she said to Abraham, Drive away this slave-girl and her son, for the son of this slave-girl shall not inherit with my son, with Isaac.

READ ALONG: Genesis 21:8–21

Follow along

1. What does Sarah see, and what does she ask Abraham to do?

2. How does Abraham feel about it?

3. What did God hear in the wilderness?

4. Where have you seen family jealousy split people for years?

5. Why does fear for our own children make us hard on someone else's?

6. Is it possible both mothers were acting out of love?

7. Who in your family was sent away, and has anyone gone looking?

Leave them with

THE ONE QUESTION

Whose child are you protecting yours from?

- 1. Who is crying under a bush that you sent away?
- 2. What would it cost to go back to them?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
