Saul Has Slain His Thousands

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

1 SAMUEL 18:7 And the women who were playing answered and said, Saul has slain his thousands, but David his myriads.

READ ALONG: 1 Samuel 18:6–16

Follow along

1. What exactly did the women sing?

2. How did Saul change after that day?

3. Why would a king feel threatened by a song?

4. When has a comparison stayed in your head long after it was said?

5. How do insecure leaders treat gifted people under them?

6. Is jealousy really about the other person, or about our own fear?

7. Who in your life are you eyeing?

THE ONE QUESTION

Whose song do you keep hearing as a ranking?

- 1. What would it take to be glad someone is better at something than you?
- 2. Who have you thrown a spear at with words?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
