Movement IV · Unmet Needs Become Chaos

Right in His Own Eyes

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

JUDGES 21:25 In those days there was no king in Israel; each man did that which was right in his own eyes.

READ ALONG: Judges 17–21 (framed by 17:6; 18:1; 19:1; 21:25)

Follow along

1. What phrase repeats through these chapters, and how many times?

2. What does Micah's mother do with the returned silver?

3. What was missing in Israel at this time?

4. Where do you see everyone being their own authority today?

5. Why does a lack of shared authority usually lead to more conflict, not less?

6. Is doing what is right in your own eyes always wrong, or only when it replaces God?

7. Where in your life are you the only authority you answer to?

THE ONE QUESTION

Who has the right to tell you that you are wrong?

- 1. What have you consecrated to God that is really your own idea?
- 2. What are you weeping over that started with everyone doing as they pleased?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
