Movement IX · The Dividing Notions, One by One

Each One of You Has a Psalm

*tongues, gifts, and worship and music style*The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

1 CORINTHIANS 12:4 And there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit;

5 and there are varieties of ministries, yet the same Lord.

6 And there are varieties of workings, but the same is God, the One working all things in all.

7 And to each one is given the showing forth of the Spirit to the profiting of each one.

READ ALONG: 1 Corinthians 12:4–7; 1 Corinthians 14:26, 33, 40; Colossians 3:16

Follow along

1. What different things did people bring to the Corinthian gathering?

2. What one test did Paul apply to all of it?

3. What does 1 Corinthians 14:33 say about God?

4. Why do worship and gifts stir up such strong feelings?

5. What worship style feels most like home to you, and why?

6. When has a different style made you uncomfortable, or opened something up?

7. How might the style you dislike be building someone else up?

THE ONE QUESTION

Are you measuring worship by building up, or by what feels like home?

- 1. What "psalm" do you bring that no one has asked for?
- 2. Visit, listen to, or read one form of worship unlike your own this week, and look for what builds up.

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
