Movement IX · The Dividing Notions, One by One

Neither Is the Man Apart from Woman

women and teaching; men and women

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

GENESIS 1:27 And God created the man in His own image; in the image of God He created him. He created them male and female.

READ ALONG: Genesis 1:27; 1 Corinthians 11:11–12; 1 Timothy 2:11–12; Acts 18:26; Acts 21:8–9; Romans 16:1–4

Follow along

1. What does Luke tell us about Philip's daughters?

2. How does Paul describe Phoebe and Priscilla?

3. What does 1 Timothy 2:12 say, and how have readers understood it?

4. What does 1 Corinthians 11:11–12 say about how men and women relate?

5. What did you learn growing up about what men and women may do in an assembly?

6. When have you seen this question hurt someone?

7. Whatever your view, what would change if you began from 1 Corinthians 11:11–12, where neither man nor woman is apart from the other?

THE ONE QUESTION

Whose gift have you overlooked because of who they are?

- 1. What woman, or man, has taught you something about God that you've never thanked them for?
- 2. How will you honor someone of the other sex at your table this week?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
