Tempting Him

divorce and remarriage

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

MATTHEW 19:3 And the Pharisees came near to Him, tempting Him, and saying to Him, Is it lawful for a man to dismiss his wife for every reason?

READ ALONG: Matthew 19:3–9; 1 Corinthians 7:10–15; John 4:16–18

Follow along

1. Why did the Pharisees ask Jesus about divorce?

2. Where did Jesus go in Scripture for his answer?

3. What reason did he give for Moses allowing divorce?

4. What does Paul say God has called believers to in 1 Corinthians 7:15?

5. How has divorce touched your family or your friends?

6. What did divorced people experience in the assemblies you have known?

7. How can someone hold firm convictions about marriage and still make room at the table for those whose marriages ended?

THE ONE QUESTION

When divorce comes up, are you talking about a question or about a person?

- 1. Who in your life carries the weight of a marriage that ended, and when did you last sit with them?
- 2. What would "God has called us in peace" look like in one relationship this week?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
