The Rich and the Poor Meet Together

tithing; rich and poor

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

PROVERBS 22:2 The rich one and the one being poor meet together, Jehovah is the One making all of them.

READ ALONG: Proverbs 22:2; Malachi 3:10; Matthew 23:23; 2 Corinthians 9:7; 1 Timothy 6:17–19

Follow along

1. What do the rich and the poor have in common in Proverbs 22:2?

2. What did Jesus say the tithers had left aside?

3. What attitude toward giving does 2 Corinthians 9:7 describe?

4. What does Paul tell Timothy to charge the rich to do?

5. What did you learn about money and faith growing up?

6. When have you felt judged for having too little, or too much?

7. What assumption do you make about people based on what they own?

Leave them with

THE ONE QUESTION

Whom do you treat differently because of their money?

- 1. What would cheerful giving look like for you this week?
- 2. Who is on the other side of your gate, and do you know their name?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
