Jehovah Looks for the Heart

*dress and outward appearance*The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

1 SAMUEL 16:7 And Jehovah said to Samuel, Do not look on his appearance, and not to the height of his stature, for I have rejected him. For man does not see what He sees. For man looks for the eyes, but Jehovah looks for the heart.

READ ALONG: 1 Samuel 16:7; James 2:1-4; 1 Peter 3:3-4

Follow along

1. Why did Samuel think Eliab was the one?

2. In James 2, how were the two visitors treated, and why?

3. What does Peter say is "of great value before God"?

4. Why does clothing say so much to us about a person?

5. What were the dress expectations where you grew up, and where did they come from?

6. When have you been judged by what you wore, or judged someone else?

7. What would your gathering look like if seating were based only on welcome?

THE ONE QUESTION

Where would you have seated the poor man in dirty clothing?

- 1. What do your own clothes say, and to whom are you saying it?
- 2. Look past one person's appearance this week and ask about their heart.

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
