Do Not Boast Against the Branches

*Israel*The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

ROMANS 11:18 do not boast against the branches. But if you do boast, it is not you that bears the root, but the root bears you.

READ ALONG: Romans 11:1–2, 17–21; Romans 10:12

Follow along

1. How does Paul answer his own question in Romans 11:1?

2. What does the olive tree picture show about Jews and people from the nations?

3. What warning does Paul give the grafted-in branches?

4. What does Romans 10:12 say about Jew and Greek?

5. What did you hear about Israel and Jewish people growing up?

6. When have views on Israel divided people you know?

7. How would the conversation change if everyone began with "the root bears you"?

THE ONE QUESTION

Where are you boasting against the branches?

- 1. Who could you ask, with real interest, what their Jewish faith means to them? If no one comes to mind, why not?
- 2. Pray this week for the peace of people on every side of that land.

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
