Your Old Men Shall Dream Dreams

*generations*The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

JOEL 2:28 And it shall be afterward, I will pour out My Spirit on all flesh. And your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions.

READ ALONG: Joel 2:28; 1 Timothy 4:12; 1 Timothy 5:1-2; Job 32:7-9; Psalm 71:18

Follow along

1. Why did Elihu wait so long to speak?

2. What does Joel 2:28 say about who receives the Spirit?

3. What do 1 Timothy 4:12 and 5:1 each ask of different generations?

4. What does the psalmist in Psalm 71:18 want to do before he dies?

5. What did the generation before you get right that yours has forgotten?

6. What has a younger person taught you?

7. Which generation do you find it hardest to listen to, and what might you be missing?

THE ONE QUESTION

Whose dream or vision have you dismissed because of their age?

- 1. Who is twenty years older or younger than you, and when did you last really listen to them?
- 2. What do you need to make known to the next generation while you still can?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
