Movement IX · The Dividing Notions, One by One

Not Without Witness

*other faiths, and no faith*The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

ACTS 14:15 and saying, Men, why do you do these things? We also are men of like feelings to you, preaching the gospel to you to turn you from these vain things to the living God, who “made the heaven and the earth and the sea, and all the things in them,” 16 who in the generations having passed allowed all the nations to go in their own ways.

17 And yet He did not leave Himself without witness, doing good, giving rain and fruitful seasons to us from heaven, filling our hearts with food and gladness.

READ ALONG: Acts 14:15–17; 1 Peter 3:15–16; Luke 9:51–56

Follow along

1. Why did the crowd at Lystra try to worship Paul and Barnabas?

2. How did Paul describe himself to them?

3. What witness did Paul say God had left among them?

4. What two attitudes does Peter say should go with our answer?

5. What friends or family do you have of another faith, or no faith?

6. What have you learned from them?

7. What would it mean to begin a conversation with "We also are men of like feelings to you"?

THE ONE QUESTION

What do you share with the person whose faith you don't share?

- 1. When did you last listen to someone's beliefs without preparing your reply?
- 2. Where have you seen God's "witness" in someone outside your faith?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
