Knowledge Puffs Up, Love Builds Up

*food and alcohol*The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

1 CORINTHIANS 8:1 But concerning the sacrifices to idols, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up.

READ ALONG: 1 Corinthians 8:1, 7–13; 1 Corinthians 10:23–24, 31; Ephesians 5:18; Romans 14:13–17

Follow along

1. What did the believer "with knowledge" know about idols?

2. What happened to the believer with a weak conscience when he saw him eat?

3. What did Paul say he would give up, and why?

4. How do 1 Corinthians 8:8 and 8:13 work together?

5. What food or drink rules shaped the community you grew up in?

6. When has your freedom, or your strictness, made it hard for someone else?

7. What is the difference between giving something up for a brother and making him give it up too?

THE ONE QUESTION

Does your freedom build up, or only puff up?

- 1. Who at your table is fighting a battle you can't see?
- 2. What will you set down this week for someone else's sake?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
