Movement IX · The Dividing Notions, One by One

It Is Not Yours to Know

end-times timelines, date-setting, and whether the time of the assemblies is over

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

ACTS 1:6 Then, indeed, having come together they questioned Him, saying, Lord, do You restore the kingdom to Israel at this time?

7 And He said to them, It is not yours to know times or seasons which the Father placed in His own authority;

8 but you will receive power, the Holy Spirit having come upon you, and you will be witnesses of Me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and Samaria, and to the end of the earth.

READ ALONG: Acts 1:6–8; Matthew 24:36, 42–46; Hebrews 10:24–25; Matthew 18:20

Follow along

1. What did the disciples ask, and how did Jesus answer?

2. What did he give them to do instead of a date?

3. What makes the servant in Matthew 24:46 blessed?

4. Why do people want to know the timeline so badly?

5. How have end-times beliefs shaped your life or your family's?

6. Where have you seen beliefs about the timeline divide friends?

7. What would you say to someone who gave up a great deal for a date that passed?

THE ONE QUESTION

If no one knows the hour, what are you being found doing?

- 1. Whom have you written off over a timeline?
- 2. Who do you know who was hurt by a prediction, and have you ever asked how they are?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
