Wait for One Another

the Lord's supper

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

1 CORINTHIANS 11:33 So that, my brothers, coming together to eat, wait for one another.

READ ALONG: 1 Corinthians 11:17–34

Follow along

1. What was happening when the Corinthians gathered?

2. Why did Paul say it was "not to eat the Lord's supper"?

3. Whom does verse 28 tell each person to examine?

4. What does "wait for one another" ask of people who arrive first?

5. What experiences of the Lord's supper have you had, in any tradition?

6. When has a meal made you feel included or excluded?

7. How does a meal meant to show one body end up showing division?

THE ONE QUESTION

Whom are you not waiting for?

- 1. Who leaves your gatherings hungry?
- 2. What would it look like to examine yourself instead of others this week?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
