Movement V · Open Hands That Are Traps

The First Offer

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

GENESIS 3:6 And the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that to the eyes it was to be desired, and the tree was desirable to make one wise. And she took of its fruit and ate; and she also gave to her husband with her, and he ate.

READ ALONG: Genesis 3:1–7 (with Genesis 2:9)

Follow along

1. What question does the serpent ask first, and how does it twist God's words?

2. What three things does the woman see in the tree?

3. What had God already provided in the garden?

4. Why do you think the offer started with doubt about the giver?

5. Where do you see offers today that start by making you distrust people close to you?

6. Is wanting wisdom, beauty or food wrong? Where did this go wrong?

7. What good thing are you being offered on terms that cost more than they say?

THE ONE QUESTION

What are you being offered that you already have?

- 1. Who has tried to make you doubt someone who loves you?
- 2. What did the last shortcut cost you?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
