They Will Use You for Gain

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

2 PETER 2:1 But there also came to be false prophets among the people, as also among you will be false teachers who will secretly bring in destructive heresies, even denying the One having bought them, the Master, bringing swift destruction on themselves.

2 And many will follow their destructive ways, through whom the way of truth will be evil spoken of.

3 And by covetousness, with feigned words, they will use you for gain, for whom judgment of old does not linger, and their destruction does not slumber.

READ ALONG: 2 Peter 2:1–3

Follow along

1. Where do these false teachers come from, according to verse 1?

2. What drives them, according to verse 3?

3. Why would Peter warn that they come from among you?

4. Where have you seen faith used to sell something?

5. How do schemes that profit from hope target people who have little?

6. Is it possible to serve God and profit? Where is the line?

7. What has your faith cost you, and who received it?

THE ONE QUESTION

Who is making money off your hope?

- 1. What promise did you pay for that never arrived?
- 2. Who around you is being sold to, and could use a warning?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
