Movement V · Open Hands That Are Traps

Three Needs, Three Traps

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

MATTHEW 4:3 And coming near to Him, the Tempter said, If You are the Son of God, speak that these stones may become loaves.

READ ALONG: Matthew 4:1–11

Follow along

1. What are the three offers, in order?

2. How does Jesus answer each one?

3. Why did these offers come after forty days of fasting?

4. Which of the three would be hardest for you to refuse?

5. Why do traps come when people are weakest?

6. Was it wrong for Jesus to be hungry? What made the offer a trap?

7. What is the bow you are being asked to make in exchange for the kingdom?

THE ONE QUESTION

Which of the three are you hungry for: bread, safety or power?

- 1. Where are you most tempted when you are most tired?
- 2. What need can you hold onto without taking the shortcut?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
