On Her Knees

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

JUDGES 16:15 And she said to him, How can you say, I love you, and your heart is not with me. These three times you have trifled with me, and have not told me where your great strength lies.

READ ALONG: Judges 16:4–21

Follow along

1. What were the rulers paying Delilah to find out?

2. How many times does she try before he tells her?

3. What does she say about his love in verse 15?

4. Why would Samson stay after the first three betrayals?

5. Where do people today get drawn in by someone who says they love them?

6. Is it always obvious from the outside but invisible from the inside? Why?

7. Who in your life uses your love to get what they want?

THE ONE QUESTION

What does someone keep asking you to prove?

- 1. What warning signs have you already seen three times?
- 2. Who could you tell before you tell all your heart?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
