The Flatterer's Net

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

PROVERBS 29:5 A man who flatters his neighbor spreads a net for his steps.

READ ALONG: Proverbs 29:5 (with Proverbs 27:6)

Follow along

1. According to the verse, who is the net set for?

2. What does Proverbs 27:6 say about the wounds of one who loves?

3. Why would flattery be described as a net rather than a lie?

4. When has praise made you do something you would not normally do?

5. Why are people who feel unseen especially vulnerable to flattery?

6. Is all praise dangerous? What makes it a net?

7. Who praises you most, and what do they want?

Leave them with

THE ONE QUESTION

Whose praise do you need too much?

- 1. Who tells you the truth when it costs them?
- 2. Whose steps are you netting with your words?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
