Babel

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

GENESIS 11:4 And they said, Come, let us build a city and a tower with its head in the heavens, and make a name for ourselves, that we not be scattered on the face of all the earth.

READ ALONG: Genesis 11:1–9

Follow along

1. What do the people say they want to build, and why?

2. What does Jehovah do, and what stops?

3. What was the danger in being scattered, from their point of view?

4. Where do you see groups united mainly to make a name for themselves?

5. Why can a shared project feel like real unity?

6. Is it possible to be united and still be wrong together?

7. What tower are you helping build?

THE ONE QUESTION

What name are you trying to make, and with whom?

- 1. What would you lose if your group scattered tomorrow?
- 2. What is your unity actually for?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
