Friends That Day

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

LUKE 23:12 And on that same day, both Pilate and Herod became friends with each other, for they before were at enmity between themselves.

READ ALONG: Luke 23:1–12

Follow along

1. What were Herod and Pilate before that day, and what were they after?

2. What did Herod hope to see from Jesus?

3. Why might passing Jesus between them have brought them together?

4. Where have you seen rivals become friends because of a shared enemy?

5. Why is a common enemy such a strong glue?

6. Can a friendship built on a shared enemy last once the enemy is gone?

7. Who have you bonded with mostly over who you both dislike?

THE ONE QUESTION

Who are you friends with only because you share an enemy?

- 1. If your common enemy disappeared, what would be left of the friendship?
- 2. Who is being passed back and forth between your camps?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
