The Two Hundred Fifty

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

NUMBERS 16:3 And they were assembled against Moses and against Aaron, and said to them, You take too much! For all the congregation, all of them are holy, and Jehovah is among them. Why then do you lift up yourselves above the assembly of Jehovah?

READ ALONG: Numbers 16:1–35, 41

Follow along

1. What does the coalition accuse Moses and Aaron of?

2. What does Korah want, and what do Dathan and Abiram complain about?

3. How does Moses respond at first?

4. Where have you seen people with different complaints unite under one slogan?

5. Why does a shared grievance feel like a shared cause?

6. Can a true statement (all the congregation is holy) be used for a false purpose?

7. What grievance would you join a coalition over?

THE ONE QUESTION

What grievance are you holding hands with?

- 1. What is the real thing you want under the slogan you repeat?
- 2. Whose authority do you resent, and why?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
