Four Hundred Prophets, One Voice

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

1 KINGS 22:14 And Micaiah said, As Jehovah lives, surely that which Jehovah says to me, that I will speak.

READ ALONG: 1 Kings 22:1–37

Follow along

1. What did the four hundred say, and how did the king feel about Micaiah?

2. What did the messenger ask Micaiah to do?

3. Why would the prophets all say the same thing?

4. Where have you seen people tell a leader only what he wants to hear?

5. Why is it hard to be the one voice that disagrees?

6. Is the number of people who agree any evidence of truth?

7. Who is your Micaiah, the one you avoid because you know what they will say?

Leave them with

THE ONE QUESTION

Who do you hate to ask because they will tell you the truth?

- 1. Where are you one of the four hundred?
- 2. What would it cost you to be Micaiah this week?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
