It Was Agreed with You

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

ACTS 5:9 And Peter said to her, Why was it that it was agreed with you to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? Behold, the feet of the ones burying your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out.

READ ALONG: Acts 5:1–11

Follow along

1. What did Ananias and Sapphira do with the price of the land?

2. What does Peter say in verse 4 about whose money it was?

3. What had others in the assembly been doing just before this?

4. Why might someone want to look more generous than they are?

5. When have you seen two people cover for each other in a lie?

6. Is it easier to keep up a pretense when someone else agrees to it with you?

7. What image do you and someone close to you keep up together?

THE ONE QUESTION

What have you agreed to pretend with someone?

- 1. What would happen if you just said, we kept some back?
- 2. Who would you need to tell the truth to first?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
