The Sect Spoken Against Everywhere

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

ACTS 24:14 But I confess this to you that according to the Way, which they call a sect, so I worship the paternal God, believing all things according to that having been written in the Law and the Prophets,

READ ALONG: Acts 24:14; Acts 28:22; Acts 26:9–23

Follow along

1. What did Paul's accusers call his faith, and what did he call it?

2. What does Paul say about how he once treated this "sect"?

3. Why would his own story carry weight in a courtroom?

4. What did the leaders in Rome do before forming a view?

5. What group have you only heard about from its critics?

6. What have people assumed about your faith from its reputation?

7. Could you describe a group you disagree with in words its own members would accept?

THE ONE QUESTION

Which group have you only ever heard described by its enemies?

- 1. Who could you ask, "What do you actually believe?" — and then just listen?
- 2. What is your own "road" story, and who last heard it?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
