You Are a Samaritan

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

JOHN 8:48 Then the Jews answered and said to Him, Do we not say well that You are a Samaritan and have a demon?

READ ALONG: John 8:48–49 (with the context of John 8:31–59)

Follow along

1. What had been happening in the conversation before verse 48?

2. Which of the two charges did Jesus answer, and which did he leave alone?

3. Why was "Samaritan" an insult to the people in that crowd?

4. What does a label let a person stop doing?

5. What labels have been used on you, and how did they land?

6. What labels do you use for people you disagree with?

7. When does a label stop being a description and become a way to end the conversation?

THE ONE QUESTION

What label do you use to stop listening?

- 1. Whose name have you swapped for a category?
- 2. Think of one person you've labeled. What is their actual name?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
