Neither in This Mountain

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

JOHN 4:21 Jesus said to her, Woman, believe Me that an hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither in this mountain nor in Jerusalem.

READ ALONG: John 4:4–42

Follow along

1. Why was the woman surprised that Jesus asked her for a drink?

2. What did Jesus offer her before he spoke about her life?

3. What was the mountain dispute between Jews and Samaritans?

4. How did Jesus answer the dispute without dismissing it?

5. What "mountain" divides the people you grew up with from someone else?

6. When has someone told you a hard truth in a way you could hear? What made it possible?

7. Describe a time you tried to tell someone a hard truth before they knew you cared about them. What happened?

THE ONE QUESTION

What is your mountain?

- 1. Who needs to know they're wanted before they can hear anything else from you?
- 2. Who is the Samaritan you would not ask for a drink?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
