Movement VIII · Who Keeps You in Line?

Another's Servant

The series question: "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29)

ROMANS 14:4 Who are you judging another's servant? To his own master he stands or falls. But he will stand, for God is able to make him stand.

READ ALONG: Romans 14:4, 10–12; James 4:11–12

Follow along

1. What question does Paul ask in Romans 14:4?

2. Who does each servant stand or fall before?

3. What does Paul expect God to do for the one being judged?

4. According to James, what is a person doing when they judge a brother?

5. When have you felt judged by someone with no authority over you?

6. Whose servant are you most tempted to manage?

7. What would you have to give up to let God be someone else's master?

THE ONE QUESTION

Whose servant are you correcting?

- 1. Whom does God expect to stand, while you expect them to fall?
- 2. What will your own account before God include that you haven't looked at?

The empty chair. Every week one chair at our table stays empty. It is for the person you would never invite.
